

Anderson College

-- A Junior College

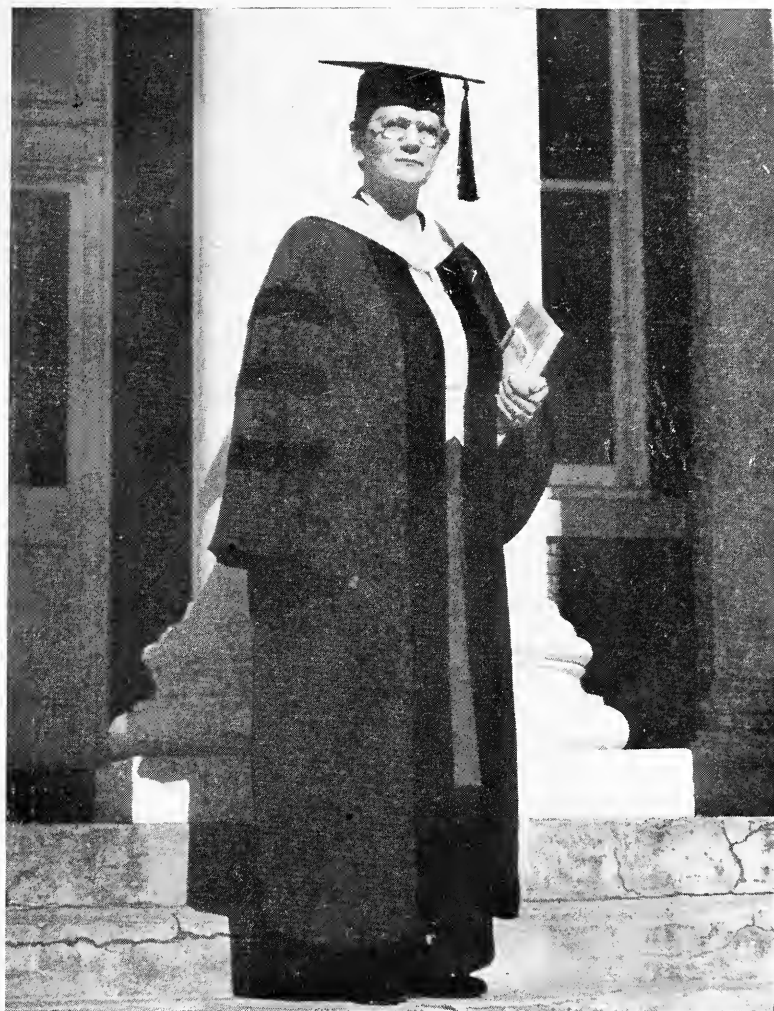

Anderson, South Carolina

Volume XXIII - Number 2

A JUNIOR COLLEGE with a Preparatory Department, Anderson College offers terminal and transfer courses leading to the Associate in Arts degree with opportunities for specialization in Art, Dramatic Art, Home Economics, Music, Physical Education, Pre-Nursing, Radio, Secretarial Science, and Speech.

THE ENVIRONMENT AND IDEALS are conducive to happiness and contentment. Activities are planned which will develop personality and social graces. Individual attention is given to each student. Simple and sincere Christian aims motivate the thoughts and action of the entire student body.

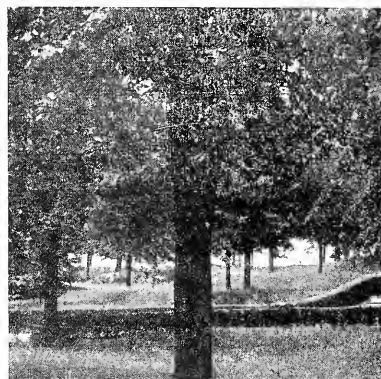

THE CITY OF ANDERSON is ideally located near the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The College, with its thirty-two acre campus, is situated on the Boulevard, a mile from the center of the city in one of the best residential sections. Students live comfortably in spacious dormitories, arranged in suites with connecting baths.

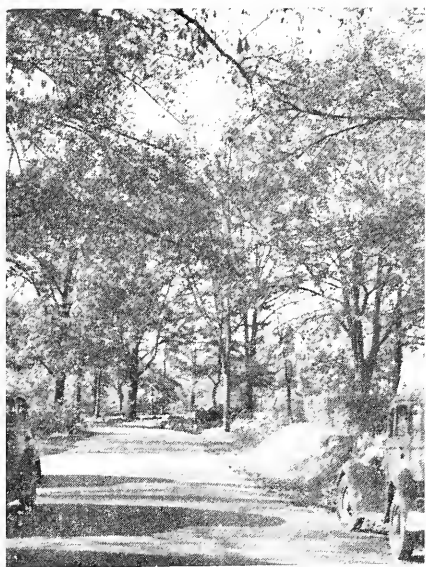

DR. ANNIE D. DENMARK, president of Anderson College, combines educational achievements with a sympathetic understanding of young people and their modern problems.

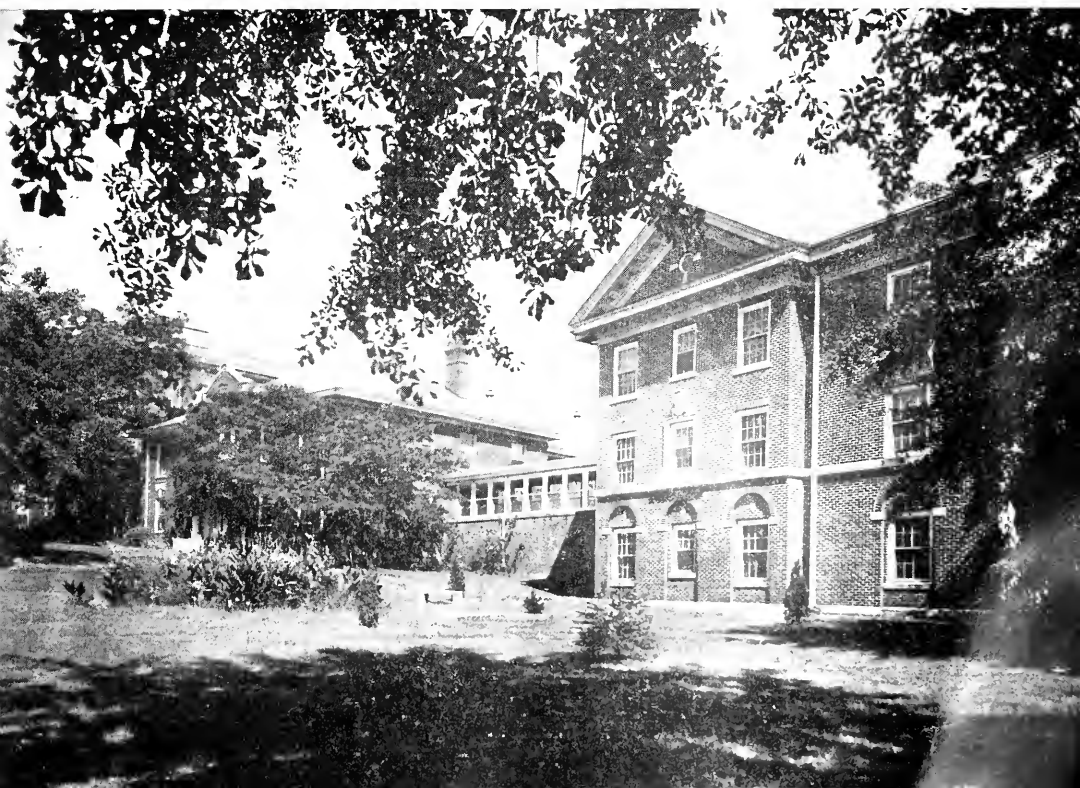

CAMPUS SCENES

The educational plant consists of modern, steam-heated brick buildings, all connected by colonnades.

THE CAMPUS is landscaped in a series of rising terraces, with flower-bordered walks and driveways. Wisteria, dogwood, a rose garden, and formal memorial gardens add to the natural beauty of the grounds.

MUSIC AT ANDERSON

Students may specialize in piano, voice, organ, or violin, or may find time to take one or two private lessons a week in connection with some other course of study. Activities of the Music Department include studio, radio, and chapel recitals.

Miss Grace L. Cronkhite, director of music, offers courses in piano, organ, harmony, music history, and music appreciation.

ACTIVITIES OF THE GLEE CLUB and Sextet include the Christmas Vespers, Founders Day and Commencement music, a spring opera, and participation in the Columbia Music Festival.

Hope It's a Basket

Ping Po

AFTER

Arche

Call It, Ump!

Volley Bo

Practice

On the Hockey Field

Three

CLASSES

Enthusiasts

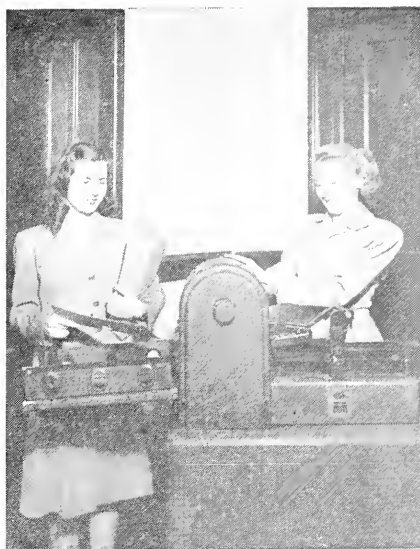

Hold That Pose

TRANSFER COURSES such as the Liberal Arts, Music or Speech Major, or Pre-professional courses prepare students for transfer to the junior year of four-year colleges or universities. The library of more than seven thousand volumes is a popular place when term papers are due.

The Art Department attracts students who wish to specialize in art and others who choose art courses as electives.

STUDENTS MAY CHOOSE from a variety of terminal courses, such as: Homemaking; Secretarial; Medical Secretarial.

Anderson College on the Air

THE COURSE in radio dramatics and speech includes technique before the microphone, script-reading and writing, and the broadcasting of programs.

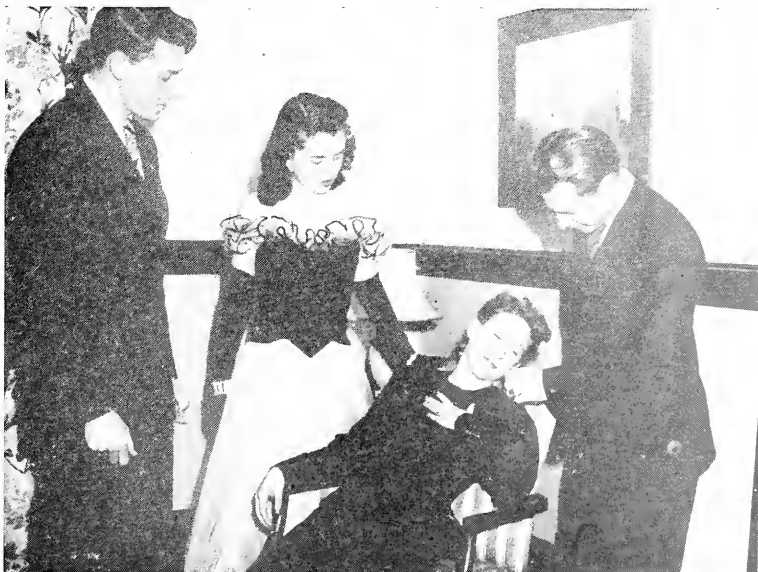

Scene From "Charity Begins"

Scene From "Smilin' Through"

STUDENTS WHO HAVE a good scholastic standing and have actively participated in play acting or producing are eligible for membership in Delta Psi Omega, national junior college dramatic fraternity. The Anderson College Players, college dramatic organization, invites students for membership who are interested in dramatic art, including all phases of play production.

Scene From "Vivacious Lady"

Scenes From the Opera
"The Marriage of Figaro"

Ladies of the Court

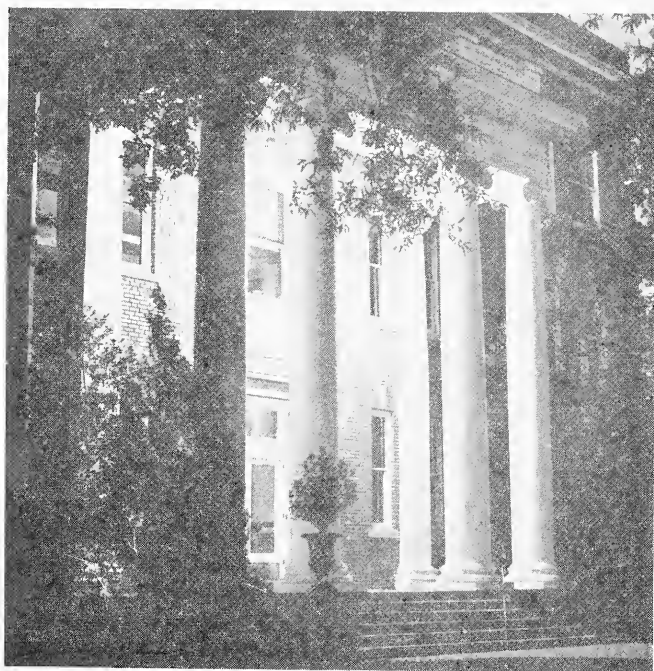

MAY DAY

May Queen

Maid of Honor

The College by Moonlight